President's Message by Lisa Johnson, UVQG President

When I stood up to welcome you all together at the Senior Center last Wednesday, all I could think in my mind was how great it was to be together again! What a fabulous event to have Karin Crawford come and share all of her beautiful quilts. In her introduction, Karin told a quick story about a letter her grandmother had written to her mother. It was a series of bad news, ending with Hitler's invasion of Europe. The grandmother then wrote: "I guess I'll go upstairs and quilt."

How many of us felt this way on 9-11? When there was a death in our family? A very close friend moves away? A necessary relocation where you find yourself without friends? During the pandemic? We have all turned to our quilting when times get rough. Quilting is like having a best friend to turn to who will listen and put an arm around our shoulder. Many times I have needed to turn to this "friend" to help me get through difficult times. Three years ago I moved from Southern California to Utah. I turned to quilting to help with the resulting loneliness, and then to help me make so many new friends.

I am so grateful that I have quilting, which is a constant companion in my life. I can even take it with me in the form of handwork, which I have done while I'm away visiting my daughter and her new family. I am praying that my current handwork project will get me through tomorrow when I have to again leave them all.

Karin also told of her father's passing and the quilt she made from his ties. That quilt helped her through her grief but also reminds her of her father and brings happy memories. Quilting is there in the good times, as well as in the struggles of life.

Lastly, thank you to those who came forward to help our guild, by volunteering to be on the Board: Mabelle Preston who will hold the position of July Fair Chair and Annie Thayne who will do membership. Our guild can't run without its volunteers, so thank you to them, and to everyone from the newsletter editor to those who greet us at our guild meetings. We couldn't be here without you.

Stitch on!

BE A PIECE MAKER,
Lisa Johnson

May Show & Tell

Sandy Lai-Stack N Whack-I had the fabric for a long time and was at a retreat where they were demonstrating the technique. I finished it a few weeks ago.

Liz Laney-Stella's Mission-I bought a kit at July Fair about 20 years ago after seeing the model on the wall. When I was going thru receipts the next year, I discovered my credit card had never been charged for the kit. We were planning on going on a mission, so I tracked down the store owner and made it right before leaving. The original pattern is "Stella Blue" so I renamed my "Stella's Mission." This was the first of many COVID UFO's that I finished.

Dee DeHart-Bee in my Blue Bonnet-Texas Star with a beehive applique. Pulled together flower from Edyta Sitar. Beehives from Bonnie Sullivan. Texas star is done as an expanded star. Quilted by Emmy Evans with the Quilted Barn.

Diane Carn-Pecking Order- Made from leftovers

Sarah Yorgason-Tumalo Trail-Bonnie Hunter class sponsored by Utah State Quilt Guild. I made it really scrappy.

Lacey Peterson-This was a kit I bought from Corn Wagon done in cream and green.

Karlene Riggs and Mabelle Preston-Gracious Grove- Jill Finley pattern and the fabric is called Citrus Grove.

Mabelle Preston-Hawaiian Hibiscus-Batik and purple background and floral fabric. This is hand appliqued.

Mary Snow-Picnic quilt from Missouri Star Quilt Company.

Barbara Walsh-Over the River-I saw this made in black and in brown. I love it in blue. It was a good RV project.

Jodie Banks-Flower Market-This was a Poppie Cotton quilt along last summer. I used their fabric line Daisy Mae. My grandmother's name is Mae and I made this quilt for my 2 year old granddaughter, Navy Mae. It's going to live at my house for a decade or so though

UVQG SERVICE UPDATE

Our busy quilters did not disappoint! I had 17 completed quilts turned in at the May meeting and have made more deliveries. Our total for the year this far is 103 quilts and other items. I am pushing for an even 200 for the year 2021. Bags and bags of incomplete items all were adopted by members to finish up at home. Much thanks to all those who give of their time and talents.

Charity Spotlight

Project Linus <https://www.projectlinus.org/>

Can you believe Project Linus has been around for over 20 years? Blankets are collected locally and distributed to children in hospitals, shelters, social service agencies, or anywhere that a child might be in need of a big hug. I wanted to change “blankets” to “quilts” but they DO accept knitted and crocheted blankets as well as fleece ones as long as certain criteria are met.

Our Mission

HELPING CHILDREN IN NEED

At Project Linus, a non-profit organization, we provide new handmade blankets to children in need. Our blankets are lovingly made by adults and children from all walks of life and many different sources.

There are guidelines and free patterns found at <https://www.projectlinus.org/patterns/>

Project Linus chapters are located across the United States with chapters in all 50 states. I was surprised to see that there is NOT a chapter in our own Utah County.

If you would consider starting a chapter, you would have the full support of this UVQG board member. If you would like more information about what it takes to run a Project Linus chapter, contact my friend Millie M. at 801-656-9229. She has been over the Salt Lake City chapter for 10 years.

Featured Pattern: The Giving Quilt

<http://elmcreek.net/gallery/patterns/the-giving-quilt/>

I spent some time during covid relistening to some of my favorite audiobooks, including the Elm Creek Quilt series by Jennifer Chiaverini. Around February, I got through the very last one. A touching book about the way quilters contribute to the people around them. In The Giving Quilt, Elm Creek Quilter Gretchen Hartley uses the Resolution Square block to create a simple, pretty quilt pattern meant especially for giving. You can download the pattern at the website listed above.

The pattern uses 4 fabrics to make a large throw measuring 61 ½ by 73. I made a sample of the quilt with some fishing themed fabric from the guild's donations.

Consider giving this pattern a try. I will have 8 service kits available at our next meeting in June, all cut out and ready to sew together.

Garage Sale

We're so excited that we get to hold July fair this year. I am in charge of the July fair yard sale. If you have items you'd like to donate please bring them to the guild meeting in June.

We are collecting everything from quilting supplies to craft items, to clothes and decor.... what ever you'd like to donate.

I'll be at girls camp for the June guild meeting, so our sweet RevaBeth and Sarah Yorgason have agreed to gather items for me. If that date does not work for you please contact me so we can arrange a time for you to bring them to my house. I live in Lehi by Thanksgiving Point. I also need 4-6 people to help man the yard sale. I'll have some sort of bribe.. "err thank you" for those willing, I'm just not sure what it is yet. Please call or email me if you can help or need to schedule a drop off time for donations.

A Message from the King... ♭

Never mind, you might not be Hamilton fans.

This is just a message from RevaBeth.

Lacey Peterson is heading up the garage sale for our July Fair but will not be able to go to the June 16th meeting at the Orem Senior Citizen Center. That means she won't be there to intake any garage sale items. SO....I said I'd be there with my old red Toyota Tacoma and take them to her later. The truck will be parked on the front (south) side. Put your boxes in the truck bed. Don't bring them into the building. Don't wait until July 21. Hopefully I'll have my grandson there to help you but you never know how that will work out.

Got it? Garage sale items go in the old red truck before or after the June meeting.

I will also be lowering the bar for the June 16th meeting. I will be presenting my quilts after Karin's wonderful trunk show. That alone makes it a comedy hour and I'll bring my swear jar, too. Hope to see you there.

Fall Retreat

Hi Ladies, we're getting excited for Fall Retreat 2021, "Sew much fun! Celebrating 20 years!"

The UVQG set up a Venmo account, it's under @uvqgtreasurer under the businesses tab. If you pay by Venmo you will need to pay the fees on an individual basis (there are additional charges that Venmo charges us, so each member will pay those individual transaction fees). You're more than welcome to use Venmo or send a check made out to UVQG for the remaining balance to Trish (address below). Remaining balance is due August 13. I broke down the costs below and what the cost will be after deposit since everyone has paid their deposit so far.

It's the final cost $+ 2% + .10. (for Venmo only—if you pay by check there are no additional fees).

For 1 person room after paid deposit is :

$$560.00 + 11.20 (-2\%) + .10 = \571.30 each

For 2 people in a room after paid deposit:

$$355.00 + 7.10 (-2\%) + .10 = \362.20 each

For 3 people in a room after paid deposit:

$$285.00 + 5.70 (-2\%) + .10 = 290.80$ each

For 4 people in a room after paid deposit :

$$255.00 + 5.10 (-2\%) + .10 = 260.20$ each

Hopefully this makes sense to everyone. We have 3 spots left to fill to reach 108. If you haven't paid your deposit and sent in your registration form you will not be registered. So please get those in if you'd like to be registered!

Also make sure you check your emails for a Secret Sister Survey if you chose to participate!
